SANTA CLARITA SPECIAL NEEDS REGISTRY

USE THIS FREE SAFETY TOOL SO THAT SANTA CLARITA DEPUTIES CAN HELP
YOUR LOVED ONE WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

The Special Needs Registry (SNR) helps Santa Clarita Sheriff's Deputies recognize and respond to local people with special needs. Residents are invited to use the SNR to proactively provide information about a loved one with special needs of any age who may require special assistance in an emergency or other encounter with deputies.

SANTA CLARITA SPECIAL NEEDS REGISTRY

A free safety tool available at no cost to all residents of Santa Clarita.

- ★ Families or caregivers can voluntarily provide information about individuals with special needs in the secure, confidential online database.
- ★ The information is available to deputies when needed to help people with special needs in an encounter or emergency.

ENROLLMENT

Santa Clarita residents are encouraged to enroll a family member in the secure database online at www.santa-clarita.com/SNR

HOW THE REGISTRY WORKS

The information you provide in the SNR can save precious time in an emergency and help deputies do their job.

The SNR provides deputies with:

- ★ A photograph and description of the person with special needs.
- ★ Contact information for caregivers and doctors.
- ★ Medical, safety and behavioral concerns.
- ★ Accommodations for interacting and communicating with the person.
- ★ Information needed to find a missing person or identify someone who is found.
